Mr. Eric Newman
315 Washington Avenue
St. Louis, Missouri

My dear Mr. Newman:

I wanted to take this opportunity of thanking you again for your kindness in showing me part of your collection a week ago. We should be very pleased to have your permission to photograph the following items, and in a conversation with Mr. Stiegemeier of Erker Brothers we were assured that your valuable material could be photographed the day that it is received:

$10.00	Bank of St. Louis	1817	View of St. Louis
20.00	Bank of St. Louis	1817	View of Herculaneum
5.00	Union Bank of Mo.	1857	Indians on horseback attacked by bears
1.00	Bank of St. Louis	1861	Indians on horseback spearing bison
20.00	Western Bank of Mo.	1857	Hunters shooting bison

If you have an extra copy of the write-up that appeared in the rotogravure section of the Post-Dispatch we should be very pleased to have it.

Thanking you again, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Odille D. Stewart

Museum to Display River Town Bank Notes

A collection of early Nineteenth Century bank notes and check forms, issued by banks in towns along the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers, will be displayed in the City Art Museum's "Mississippi Panorama" exhibition opening Oct. 11.

early St. Louis banks as the Southern Bank of St. Louis, Bank of St. Louis, Merchants Bank of St. Louis, Traders Bank of St.
Louis and the Butchers' and Drovers' Bank, are included in the collection.

The notes date from 1817 to 1865, and have been loaned to the museum by Eric Newman, a St.
Louis attorney.
